5. Reports

- Commission Manager's report
 1. Jan. 22, 2018 – Feb. 8 2019: 2019: Executed the first San Mateo County Arts Commission Poetry Out Loud Program: Six high school students ranging 9th-12th grades Aragon High Jefferson High in Daly City, Mid-Peninsula in Menlo Park, San Mateo High, and Mercy High Burlingame participated in the program. These students participated in after school and weekend sessions where they learned the art of recitation and presentation, the tricks of using literary devices, and various poetic terms. Most sessions ended with a writing activity lead by Teaching Artist Tobey Kaplan. San Mateo County Poet Laureates Caroline Goodwin (2013-2016) and Lisa Rosenberg (2016-2018) coached students individually to prepare for the final contest. Students were also able to work collaboratively during these sessions. A senior from Jefferson High won 1st place and a freshman from San Mateo High won 2nd place at the contest, which took place at the Foster City Recreation Center on February 8, 2019. The Jefferson High student will advance to the state finals on March 10-11, 2019, which is administered by the California Arts Council. SMCAC Poetry Out Loud contest was judged by the current County Poet Laureate, East Palo Alto Poet Laureate, and Educators.
 2. Feb. 13, 2019: San Mateo County Arts Commission Grants Writing Workshop. Karen Rapp Assistant Director, Strategic Initiatives at the San José Museum of Art, lead the workshop. Ms. Rapp led the Grants Writing Workshop for the Commission in 2018 as well. She tailored her presentation according the 2019 Commission Grants Guidelines. 37 attendees were also given the opportunity to network with their fellow attendees while being served lunch. The grant application is live on www.commongrantapplication.com. Rapp's presentation was emailed to attendees. Commissioners Krishnan and Rodricks attended.
 3. February 28, 2019: DataArts PLATFORM WEBINAR-- at the October 2018 Grantee Convening, many of SMCAC expressed the need for technical assistance with DataArts. As a result, the Arts Commission in collaboration with experts from the DataArts platform offered grant applicants a webinar detailing the ins and outs of the platform on February 28, 2019 at 11 am. 20 attended the webinar.
 4. October 30, 2019: Grantee Post Convening Survey is still ongoing as we are still collecting results from attendees.
- Curator's report: Curator's report will be submitted at the July 2019 Arts Commission meeting.

Chair Rodricks stated that the Curator is still look for space to store pedestal covers in between exhibitions in one of the County Galleries.

6. Staff and Commission reports

- STAFF: Chief Legislative Aide – Juda Tolmasoff
Ms. Tolmasoff reports that she is on contact with construction project consultant regarding the gallery space in the new buildings.

Commissioner reports

- District 1: H. Krishnan

Krishnan attended and helped organize the Poetry Out Loud Competition for San Mateo County. Poetry Out Loud is a national competition where students recite poetry and learn about public speaking. She stated current County Poet Laureate Aileen Cassineto opened the competition with a reading to an audience of 30 people who attended the competition.

Krishnan will be going to Washington, DC to attend the Americans for the Arts Advocacy Day as a part of the CA Alliance of Arts Advocacy delegation. In DC, she will be meeting with Congresswomen Eshoo, Spier, Harris, and Pelosi staff to advocate for the arts.

- District 2: R. Rodricks

Rodricks reported there is a possibility for an exhibition in Caldwell Gallery artwork done by the children of HIP Housing clients.

The RFP was posted to hire a consultant for the Arts Commission's Cultural and Strategic Plan on February 8, 2019.

- District 3: L. McHugh

There is a possibility an installation of an art piece at UC Santa Cruz will move to the Half Moon Bay library. The artists (of which McHugh was one) are working with the library to work through their public art liability waiver and process for installing public art. This is a temporary display that will hopefully lead to for more art installations/public art.

- District 4: J . Heise

Heise attended the Redwood City Civic and Cultural Commission on February 7, 2019. Redwood City Civic and Cultural Commission (RCCCC) asked the SM County Arts Commission to coordinate a county wide arts events calendar. Chair Rodricks shared that the County Commission previously administered a calendar but it was critically underutilized by everyone. RCCCC advised Commissioner Heise that they would like to attend SMC Arts Commission meetings.

- District 5: P. Fong

Fong requested the Arts Commission include a discussion of how the Commission could collaborate on the County's Shared Vision 2025. The Chair recommends we discuss this at the summer meeting (time/date to be determined).

- District 5: S. Stewart

Attended the opening of the Museum of African Diaspora in San Francisco on October 1, 2018. Former San Francisco Mayor Willie Brown served on the steering committee.

7. Action Items

- A. Approve 2019 Arts Commission Grant Guidelines

Jeanne Heise moved, Pauline Fong second; motion unanimously carried.
