The Crime of Human Trafficking:
Human Trafficking Defined

Sex Trafficking of Minors - Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC) (No force, fraud or coercion required.)

Sex Trafficking of Adults (The elements of this crime require proof of force, fraud or coercion.)

Labor Trafficking (This crime includes involuntary servitude, peonage, debt bondage, etc.. The elements of this crime are the same for adults and minors.)
Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA) 2000

Protection: The TVPA increased the U.S. Government’s efforts to protect trafficked foreign national victims including, but not limited to:

- Providing assistance to victims of trafficking, many of whom were previously ineligible for government assistance; and
- Establishing non-immigrant status for victims of trafficking if they cooperated in the investigation and prosecution of traffickers (T-Visas, as well as providing other mechanisms to ensure the continued presence of victims to assist in such investigations and prosecutions).

Prosecution: The TVPA authorized the U.S. Government to strengthen efforts to prosecute traffickers including, but not limited to:

- Creating a series of new crimes on trafficking, forced labor, and document servitude that supplemented existing limited crimes related to modern slavery and involuntary servitude; and
- Recognizing that modern slavery takes place in the context of force, fraud, or coercion and is based on new clear definitions for both trafficking into commercial sexual exploitation and labor exploitation.

Prevention: The TVPA allowed for increased prevention measures including, but not limited to:

- Authorizing the U.S. Government to assist foreign countries with their efforts to combat trafficking, as well as address trafficking within the United States, including through research and awareness-raising; and
- Providing foreign countries with assistance in drafting laws to prosecute trafficking, creating programs for trafficking victims, and assistance with implementing effective means of investigation.
Relief Specific to Immigrant Community

Certification or Eligibility Letter:

Under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000 (TVPA), the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) is the sole Federal agency authorized to certify foreign adult and minor victims of human trafficking so that they are eligible for federal and State benefits and services to the same extent as refugees admitted to the United States. Certification and Eligibility Letters are issued by the HHS Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR).
Relief Specific to Immigrant Community

The following are some of the specific benefit programs for which trafficking victims with a Certification or Eligibility Letter can apply:

- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA)
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Women, Infants and Children (WIC)
- Medicaid
- Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP)
- Refugee Medical Assistance (RMA)
- Medical Screening
- One-Stop Career Center System
- Unaccompanied Refugee Minors (URM) Program

Continued Presence:

• Continued Presence (CP) is a one-year form of immigration relief that Federal law enforcement officials request on behalf of a victim of a severe form of trafficking who is also a potential witness.

• Continued Presence allows the victim to remain in the United States during the course of an investigation or prosecution as well as obtain an Employment Authorization Document (EAD).

• CP is granted by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.
Relief Specific to Immigrant Community

T-Visa:

• The TVPA created the T visa, a nonimmigrant status that allows a foreign victim of human trafficking to remain in the United States for up to four years.

• The law also allows certain members of a T visa holder’s family to apply for derivative T visa status.

• T nonimmigrant status is granted by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.
